Resolution Number: RS14-323
May, 2014

Whereas:
the Academic Senate of the California State University adopted a statement on Collegiality in the California State University that included these opening paragraphs: The smooth and effective operation of a complex multipurpose university system requires a spirit of collegiality that both reflects and fosters mutual respect among all groups within the system. Collegiality consists of a shared decision-making process and a set of attitudes, which cause individuals to regard the members of the various constituencies of the university as responsible for the success of the academic enterprise. Fundamental to this concept is the understanding that a university is a community of scholars who, out of mutual respect for the expertise and contributions of their colleagues, agree that shared decision-making in areas of recognized primary responsibility constitutes the means whereby a university best preserves its academic integrity and most effectively attains its educational mission; and

Whereas:
the Academic Senate of the California State University adopted a statement on Collegiality in the California State University that included these opening paragraphs: The smooth and effective operation of a complex multipurpose university system requires a spirit of collegiality that both reflects and fosters mutual respect among all groups within the system. Collegiality consists of a shared decision-making process and a set of attitudes, which cause individuals to regard the members of the various constituencies of the university as responsible for the success of the academic enterprise. Fundamental to this concept is the understanding that a university is a community of scholars who, out of mutual respect for the expertise and contributions of their colleagues, agree that shared decision-making in areas of recognized primary responsibility constitutes the means whereby a university best preserves its academic integrity and most effectively attains its educational mission; and

Whereas:
the success of shared decision-making at San Francisco State University is dependent upon the willingness of members of the campus community to serve on the many agencies of academic governance; and

Whereas:
the Academic Senate is the central agency for academic governance; and

Whereas: willingness to serve on the Academic Senate is, therefore, of fundamental importance to the success of the academic enterprise; now therefore be it

Resolved: that the Academic Senate of San Francisco State University thank and commend the following members of the University community who are completing their current terms of service. ? Gabriela Alvarenga, Student Affairs* ? David Anderson, College of Health & Social Sciences ? Nathan Avani, Graduate College of Education ? Patricia Bartscher, University Counsel ? Linda Buckley, Associate Vice President, Academic Planning and Development ? Lily Chen, College of Science and Engineering ? Susan Cholette, College of Business ? Sophie Clavier, College of Liberal and Creative Arts ? Ron Cortez, Vice President & CFO, Administration and Finance ? Yolanda Gamboa, Member-at-large ? Sarah Hackenberg, Member-at-large ? Mike Hammer, College of Liberal and Creative Arts* ? David Hellman, Library ? Barbara Holzman, Member-at-large ? Russell Kilday-Hicks, Capital Planning, Design & Construction ? Jennie Lau, College of Liberal and Creative Arts ? Wen-Chao Li, College of Liberal and Creative Arts ? Serie McDougal, Resolved: that the Academic Senate thank Isabelle Pelaud, outgoing ASCSU Senator and Academic Senate Executive Committee member; and be it further

Resolved: that the Academic Senate thank Joseph Barranco for service as Chair of the Curriculum Review and Approval Committee from 2013-2014, and as a member of the SF State Academic Senate Executive Committee. *Returning for a subsequent term in 2014-2015