WHEREAS:
RATIONALE: Considering the ongoing risks associated with the COVID-19 pandemic; the outbreaks of the virus on college campuses across the country; and the continuing anxiety wrought by San Francisco State University’s budget deficit and enrollment decline as well as the announcement that 131 staff, including essential employees in a variety of units, received layoff notices in September 2020, we want to recognize and thank our essential employees who are working on-site to maintain our campus operations as well as the many employees who continue to work remotely to help mitigate risks for their colleagues on campus.

WHEREAS:
the on-site work of essential employees, including students, staff, faculty, and administrators, has been critical to San Francisco State University successfully maintaining predominately remote operations since Spring 2020 while also supporting limited on-campus operations; and

WHEREAS:
esential employees have been committed to supporting those students who returned to on-campus housing for the 2020-2021 academic year, as well as those attending in-person classes and the thousands of students who remain off-site, and are committed to continuing to provide this support should the current crisis extend beyond this academic year; and

WHEREAS:
care concerns have been brought to the attention of Academic Senate that employees would appreciate greater clarification regarding on-site work expectations as well as additional support for those in high risk situations; and

WHEREAS:
the majority of San Francisco State University employees continue to work remotely in accordance with the Campus Plan’s guiding principle “to bring the smallest number of students, faculty and staff to campus for in-person instruction and support activities”; therefore be it

WHEREAS:

RESOLVED:
that the Academic Senate of San Francisco State University expresses our sincere appreciation and thanks to our essential employees, including students, staff, faculty, and administrators, who are on the frontlines of San Francisco State University’s response to this crisis; and be it further

RESOLVED:
that the Academic Senate supports the development and transparent communication of policies that clearly state expectations for on-site work, including allowances for employees at increased risk for severe illness and/or who live with individuals at increased risk as well as employees reliant on public transportation to commute to work and those grappling with child or elder care challenges due to the pandemic; and be it further

RESOLVED:
that the Academic Senate thanks all employees who continue to work remotely to help keep their colleagues safe and supports the continued provision of remote work opportunities; and be it further

RESOLVED: that this resolution be sent to the President, Vice Presidents, the Academic Senate Chairs, the CSU Academic Senate, and the Chancellor’s Office.
