Based on the recommendation from the General Education Council and the Educational Policies Council, at its meeting of March 3, 1992, the Academic Senate approved the following change in the Segment II policy:

G.B. Guidelines 1.

"A school may offer in each area of Segment II no more than 20 courses or up to four times the number of undergraduate departments and degrees-granting programs in the school, whichever is larger."

Approved by Marilyn Boxer for President Corrigan on February 2, 1993
