

Resolution Number: RS03-205
January, 2003

EXTENDING PROFOUND GRATITUDE AND JOYFUL APPRECIATION TO SENATORS

PENELOPE WARREN AND

RICK HOULBERG

WHEREAS

all involved felt that this year's Asilomar program was one of the finest ever, filled with meaty discussions, thoughtful presentations, and good fellowship, all amidst the scenic delights of Asilomar; and

WHEREAS

one new faculty member described the cabaret this way: "If before Asilomar any of us were unsure of the type of intellectual community we belonged to, the witty, crazy, silly, and entertaining performance-night set us straight"; and

WHEREAS

Senators Penelope Warren and Rick Houlberg served as co-chairs for the 2003 Asilomar retreat, both putting in many long hours in organizing the program; and

WHEREAS

there was widespread and enthusiastic approval for the outstanding job that they did; now therefore be it that the Academic Senate of San Francisco State University express its profound gratitude and joyful appreciation of the manifold contributions made by Senators Penny Warren and Rick Houlberg to the success of the 2003 Asilomar retreat; and be it further that the Academic Senate of San Francisco State University bestow upon Senator Penny Warren the titles

RESOLVED

RESOLVED

Dux Femina Optima,

Consultor Praestantissima, and

Asilomar Retreat

Planning Chair Emerita Summa Cum Laude

and upon Senator Rick Houlberg the titles

Imperator Maximus,

Dominus Omnium

Auditorum Visorumque, and

Asilomar Retreat

Planning Co-Chair Emeritus Summa Cum Laude

Unanimously Approved

by the Academic Senate at its meeting on February 11th, 2003**
