Supporting Lower Cost Muni Fast Pass for Young Adults

WHEREAS many
San Francisco State University students are frequent MUNI riders; and

WHEREAS many of these students are self-supporting young adults whose studies limit them to part-time employment; and

WHEREAS these students must pay for their living expenses and school costs including tuition, fees and textbooks from their part-time incomes; and

WHEREAS society as a whole benefits from the increased levels of education achieved by these students; and

WHEREAS the Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco have already voted to support lower-cost Fast Passes for young adults; therefore be it

WHEREAS that the Academic Senate of San Francisco State University urges the Metropolitan
