

Yiwen Chen: LFCOB

As a faculty member dedicated to achieving tenure, I am in need of the university-level service to build my tenure profile, and I'm especially passionate about the library advisory committee. Please consider this as my final nomination, replacing the self-nomination I submitted earlier. Thank you!

Yi Zhou: LFCOB

My name is Yi Zhou. I am an associate Professor of Finance. I have served as the Academic Senator representing the Lam Family College of Business in the Academic Senate from 2018 to 2023, the Curriculum Review & Approval Committee (C.R.A.C.) from 2018 to 2019, the Academic Program Review Committee (A.P.R.C.) from 2017 to 2019, the Academic Master Plan from 2018 to 2019, and the Faculty Affairs Committee (F.A.C.) from 2019 to 2023. I am currently serving on the Professional Development Council (P.D.C.) and Library Advisory Committee (L.A.C.).

This year's Professional Development Council (P.D.C.) project is continuing into next year and the continuity of a core group who worked on it before continuing to work on it is important to its success. I have made very useful contributions this year, and having me back will aid the success of the project. I respectfully request your consideration in electing me to the Professional Development Council (P.D.C.), where I can contribute my skills and experience to further the Council's important initiatives.
