

Alesha Sohler: GCOE

I am honored to recommend Alesha Sohler to serve on the Academic Senate Committee. Alesha has held the position of Executive Assistant/ Administrative Analyst for the Educational Leadership Program for over 3 years. Since that time, she has consistently demonstrated exceptional skills and qualities that make her an invaluable asset to any team. In this role Alesha is responsible for budget management and hiring lecturers and processing Reimbursed Release Time for faculty to teach in the program from across campus. Alesha possesses outstanding communication abilities that are essential for effective collaboration and decision-making within the Academic Senate Committee. Whether conveying complex ideas or facilitating discussions, she has a remarkable knack for articulating thoughts clearly and concisely, ensuring that all stakeholders are well-informed and engaged in the process. Additionally, Alesha has a keen understanding of budget management, which is crucial for the Academic Senate and other committees during the multi year budget realignment that we are currently experiencing. Her proficiency in financial matters, coupled with her meticulous attention to detail, ensures that resources are allocated wisely and transparently, maximizing the impact of budget initiatives. Beyond her professional skills, Alesha's friendly personality and approachable demeanor contribute significantly to fostering a positive and inclusive environment within any team she is a part of. She is not only a pleasure to work with but also adept at building strong relationships based on trust, respect, and collaboration
